About East End Hospice

East End Hospice

East End Hospice is a New York State certified hospice which provides end-of-life-care to terminally ill patients and their families who live on the east end of Long Island. Services are provided by teams of skilled professionals and trained volunteers under the direction of the patient's primary care physician.

Camp Good Grief

Camp Good Grief is a free-of-charge summer bereavement camp for any child aged 4 to 15 who has experienced the devastating loss of a parent or loved one. The week-long program employs a variety of activities including art, music, structured play and group therapy designed to give the campers the necessary tools to effectively cope with their feelings of loss. The experience of being around other children who have also suffered a loss tells them that they are not alone, that they are not different.

East End Hospice services are only partially reimbursed by government programs and private insurances. Operating on a yearly deficit of $850,000, East End Hospice relies heavily on donations.
