

About East End Hospice — Since certification in 1991, East End Hospice, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation, has provided services to terminally ill people and their families on Eastern Long Island, primarily in their homes under the direction of the primary physician, a team of professionals, and with valuable assistance from dedicated volunteers.

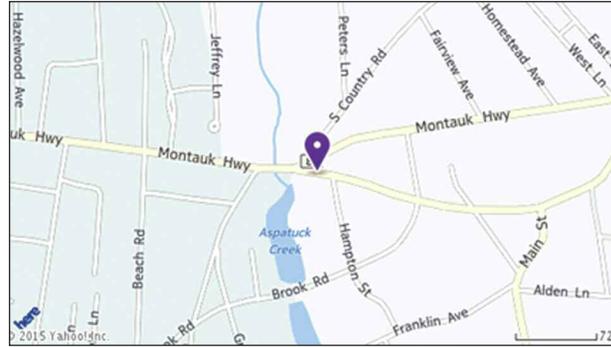

Guiding families through bereavement is an essential part of our mission. Bereavement care at East End Hospice includes individual and group counseling for adults and a comprehensive children's program that includes Camp Good Grief—a respected day camp for children now in its 20th year.

The East End Hospice Kanas Center for Hospice Care, is Long Island's premier Hospice inpatient facility, offering a comfortable home-like setting where patients receive state of the art care while surrounded by loved ones, friends and compassionate staff.

Designed by renowned architect Roger Ferris + Partners and built by Axis Construction, the campus of one-story buildings connected by sunlit walkways is situated on six acres of land bordered by the Aspatuck River. The landscaping includes native plantings, gardens and walking paths with benches for rest and contemplation.

The Kanas Center for Hospice Care welcomes people at a time of great need, offering professional and compassionate care that has become the hallmark of East End Hospice.

"This is more than a building, it's a symbol of a caring philosophy, a peaceful place where people will spend their last days in comfort and with dignity." Priscilla Ruffin, President & CEO.

The Comforts of Home

Eight patient suites, each with a private deck and view of the woodlands, are designed to accommodate family and guests for an overnight stay.

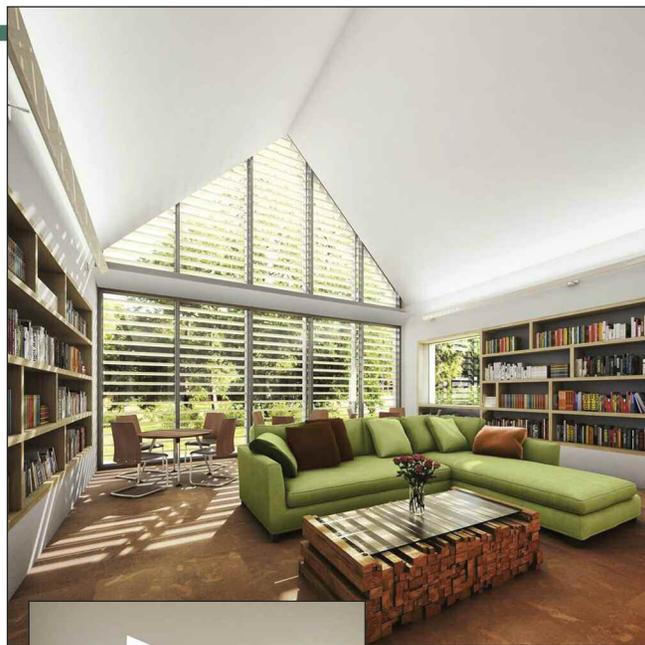

The bright and sun filled great room has a fireplace, an adjacent kitchenette and an area for visiting children to play.

The library is a place for quiet reflection or a family meeting.

The spa has a hair cutting and shampoo station, a jetted tub for a bubbly bath and a massage chair.

Outdoor courtyards and covered colonnades provide additional spaces for reflection or gathering.

The gardens are designed with native plantings and an expansive display of flowering bulbs in spring.

Who pays for Hospice Care?

Hospice services are reimbursed by Medicare, Medicaid and most private insurances, which includes the cost of medications and care necessary for the palliation of the terminal illness.

Who is Eligible for Admission to the Kanas Center?

Patients are admitted for short-term inpatient care at the Kanas Center after meeting eligibility criteria.

Please call the Kanas Center at 631.288.8100 or East End Hospice at 631.288.8400 for more information.

Mission—East End Hospice provides care and comfort for terminally ill patients, their families and loved ones living on the North and South Forks of Long Island and including Brookhaven Township. Health care professionals and volunteers offer pain and symptom control as well as palliative care and social, emotional and spiritual support to patients and their loved ones in a comfortable and caring environment. East End Hospice seeks to promote awareness of the benefits of hospice care in our communities through educational and informational presentations to civic, fraternal and religious groups, professional organizations and educational institutions. No one shall be denied care by East End Hospice because of inability to pay.
